V. Competition System

The competition is divided into two (2) rounds:

1. Semi-final round - video qualification: the categories for which the qualifying semi-final video round will be announced will be announced no later than February 29th 2024; based on the submitted video recordings of contestants, the jury will announce the contestants who will advance to the final round of the competition.
 2. Final round: live performances of the advancing finalists in the KD Mlejn, Prague 13.
- In the category where 10 or less contestants are enrolled, advancement to the final round is automatic and no video recording will be required.

VI. Semi-final round - video qualification

- The competitor who is subject to the qualifying semi-final video round is obliged to send a link to the YouTube video. The title of the video must be "Name + category + Czech Aerial Hoop Art 2024".
- The link to the qualifying video must be sent by the deadline to info@czechaerialhoop.cz.
- The deadline for sending the link to the video is until 8.4.2024 23:59.
- The video must be shot in frontal landscape view with good and legible luminosity, at a minimum quality of 720p.
- The video may not be edited, an audio track with the original recording may be added to the video for better sound quality, but the original track must not be drowned out.
- The video must be 1 min 40 sec - 2 min 00 sec.
- A video that does not meet the conditions will be automatically eliminated from the competition or penalized (depending on the severity of the failure to meet the conditions).
- No introduction, introduction of the contestant by name, surname, etc. is required for the video entry. The video recording is used for the purpose of evaluating the contestant's dance performance.
- The video does not have to be made specifically for the purpose of the Czech Aerial Hoop Art 2024 competition, but it must not be older than 1 year.
- The thematic treatment of the competition choreography in the youth categories (Children, Junior A+B Amateur, Junior A+B, Doubles Junior) must not be controversial, i.e. it must not incite violence, promote drugs and other narcotic substances, promote racial intolerance, be sexually provocative.
- There must be no distracting elements in the footage, e.g. other people's conversations, the cameraman's character, etc., except for live props.
- Camera movement is allowed, but the entire figure - including limbs - must be visible in the ring. The use of the "fisheye" technique is allowed, but must not distort the image.
- Contestants may use props to dance. Any loops and any aerial hammock, aerial silks, aerial net, aerial chains, aerial trapeze and others are not considered as props but as additional sporting instruments, i.e. not allowed. Hanging loops (handloops) on the ring are not allowed.

- Live props (persons) are allowed. The maximum number of live props is 3. A live prop must not touch the ring. Acrobatic elements and carried figures performed with a live prop or with the help of a live prop will not be counted in the evaluation of the dance choreography. The live prop should support the storyline but must not overshadow the contestant. Failure to comply with the rules may result in a deduction by the head judge.
- Based on the video application, the expert jury will select at least 10 finalists in each category for the qualifying round according to the highest score. All these contestants who will advance to the final round, including alternates, will be published on the organizer's website by April 22, 2024 at the latest.
- The organizer reserves the right to place alternates from other qualifying places in the final round no later than April 30th, 2024.

VII. Final round

The finals of the Czech Aerial Hoop Art 2024 competition will take place in KD Mlejn, Prague.

- Performances in the finals are public and will take place in front of an audience.
- All advancing finalists, including those categories with automatic advancement, must pay the additional fee for the finals in the amount of 1200 CZK no later than April 30th, 2024.
- The final performances are judged by an expert jury of six (6) or more judges.
- The finalist sends a description of his/her performance, which will be given before the performance, through a form that each finalist will receive immediately after the publication of the list of finalists (the description is not mandatory). The latest deadline for completing the caption and submitting the form is May 27th, 2024 (11:59 p.m.).
- Contestants may use props to dance. Any loops and any aerial hammock, aerial silks, aerial net, aerial chains, aerial trapeze and others are not considered as props but as additional sporting instruments, i.e. not allowed. Hanging loops (handloops) on the ring are not allowed.

- Live props (persons) are allowed. The maximum number of live props is 3. A live prop must not touch the ring. A live prop may not perform acrobatic elements and carry figures with the contestant. The live prop should support the action but must not overshadow the contestant. Failure to comply with the rules may result in a deduction by the head judge. Live props must have a valid ticket purchased.
- If a contestant starts in a pose in the ring or off stage, they may use an on-stage coach to wave to the sound engineer that the contestant is ready and promptly leave the stage (signaling the start of the music).
- A competitor may repeat a performance if:
 1. there is a technical problem with the music (in case the music is not playing properly, the contestant is obliged to inform immediately and not to continue his/her performance, later complaints will not be taken into account)
 2. if there are circumstances endangering health and safety (badly anchored ring, liquid on the stage,...)
 3. the possibility of a repeat in these cases is decided by the head judge
- For finalists in the categories Children, Doubles Junior, Juniors A, Juniors B there is a possibility of accompanying one legal representative backstage. This accompanying person must have purchased a valid ticket.
- The coach of the finalist competitor (1 person) has access to the backstage area of the theater together with the competitor during the preparation and competition performance of the competitor. The coach must have purchased a valid ticket or discounted coach ticket.
- The starting order will be determined by lot.
- The winner in each category is the competitor who has achieved the highest number of points. In the event of a tie, the number of points per art will decide.
- The jury will select and announce the three contestants with the highest number of points in each category - 1st place, 2nd place, 3rd place.
